

I do not want the FCC to change or supercede Indiana's telemarketing law. I no longer recieve the endless stream of annoying calls that we used to get at dinner, Saturday morning, (etc.) and all other times. Indiana's law is working just fine without interference from the Federal Government. I thought the Republicans were for less of BIG Government! Please leave Indiana alone.